

10th KING'S COLLEGE NEUROMUSCULAR DISEASE SYMPOSIUM
Friday November 26th 2010
Gainsford Lecture Theatre, Weston Education Centre, Cutcombe Road,
Denmark Hill, London SE5 9PJ

9.30-10.00 Registration and coffee/tea

10.00-10.30 Myasthenia

- Congenital myasthenia

Dr Jackie Palace, Consultant Neurologist, Department of Neurology, Oxford

Paediatric and Adult Muscle Disease

10.30-11.00

- Transitional Care Model for the Respiratory Management of the Adolescent DMD patients

Dr Nick Hart, Clinical Research Consultant, Guy's & St Thomas' NHS Foundation Trust and King's College London

11.00-11.30

- Myotonic Dystrophy

Dr David Hilton-Jones, Consultant Neurologist, Oxford.

11.30-12.00 Coffee/tea

3rd Annual Richard Hughes Lecture

12.00-12.45

- The role of the skeletal muscle ryanodine receptor (RYR1) gene and excitation-contraction coupling in Neuromuscular disease.

Dr Susan Treves, Consultant Neurologist, Departments of Anesthesia and Biomedizin, Basel, Switzerland

12.45-13.45 Lunch

13.45-14.15 Neurophysiology

- Syndromes of abnormal spontaneous EMG activity

Prof Kerry Mills, Consultant Neurophysiologist, Kings College Hospital

Nerve

14.15-14.45

- Infectious neuropathies (including HIV, leprosy and Lyme disease)

Dr Hadi Maji, Consultant Neurologist, Queens Square, London

14.45-15.15 Coffee/tea

15.15-16.00 CPC – TBC

MND

16.00-16.30

- Neuroprotection in ALS: A phantom of our imagining? Trials and therapeutic strategies

Prof Nigel Leigh, Consultant Neurologist, King's College London

16.30 -17.15

- The winding road to treating ALS (Brain Lecture)

Prof Wim Robberecht, Consultant Neurologist, Leuven, Belgium

17.15 Close

Organiser: Dr Rob Hadden, Cathy Ellis and Michael Rose